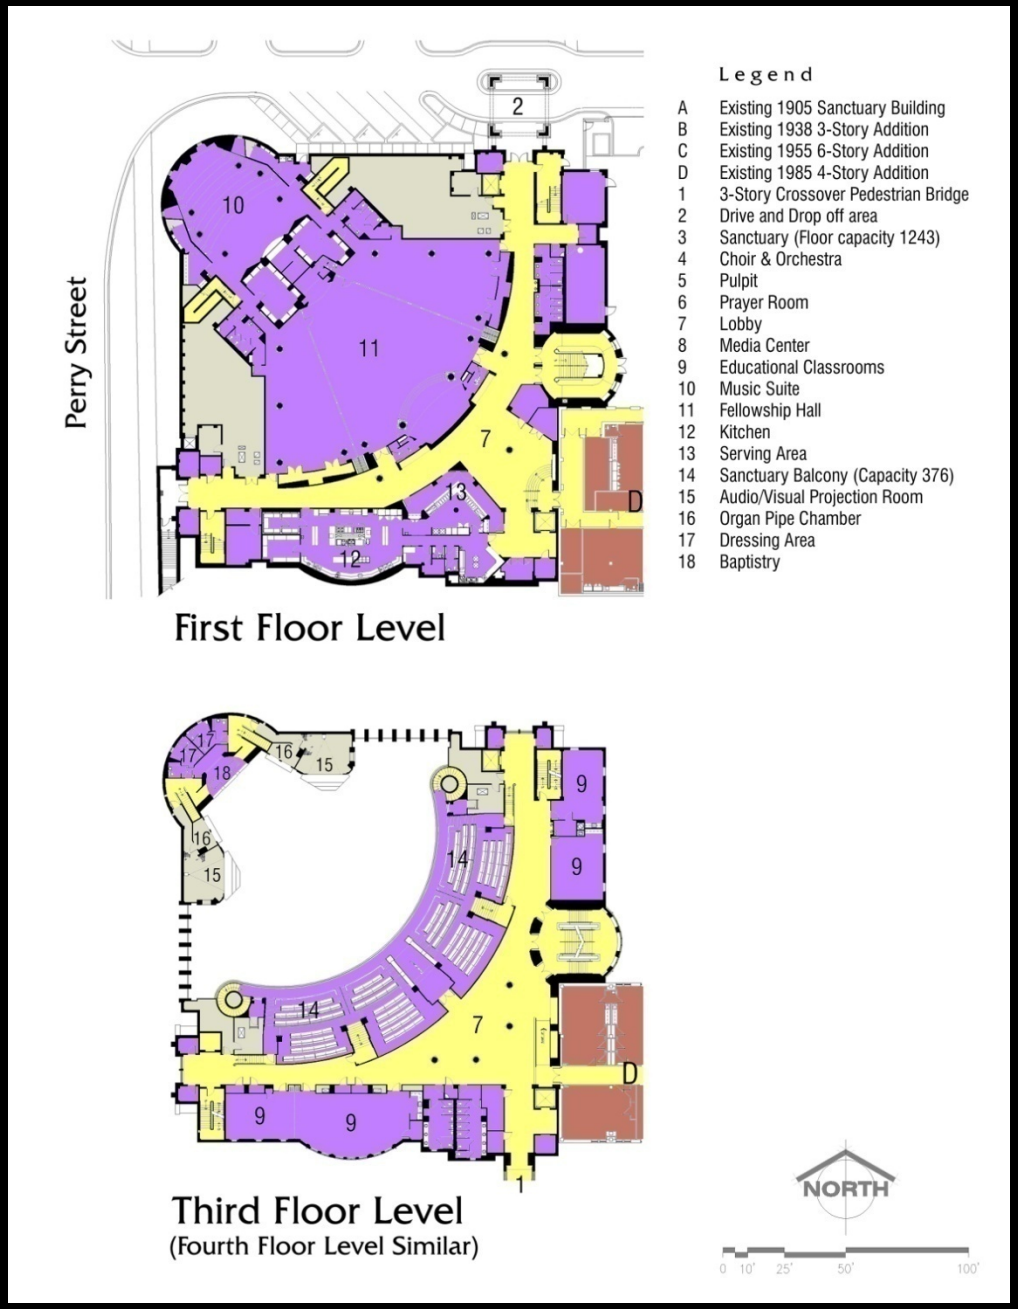
A New Sanctuary & Fellowship Hall Building

Site Context

The new Sanctuary holds the street edge along a main downtown street, while the connector bridge allows for circulation between existing and new buildings, without obscuring the historic sanctuary building.

The new building continues the use of materials inherent to the original historic structure, including georgia marble veneer, clay tile roofs, and stained glass windows.



A New Sanctuary & Fellowship Hall Building

First Floor Plan
(Fellowship Hall Level)

Site information including Covered Unloading shown to the north of New Building

Third Floor Plan
(Lower Balcony Level)

Fourth Floor Plan Similar (Upper Balcony Level)

A New Sanctuary & Fellowship Hall Building

Second Floor Plan
(Sanctuary Main Floor Level)

Site information and Existing Buildings shown to the south of New Building

A New Sanctuary & Fellowship Hall Building

View to the south towards New Building from street elevation

Existing Sanctuary shown in background right

A New Sanctuary & Fellowship Hall Building

View to the north towards New Building from street

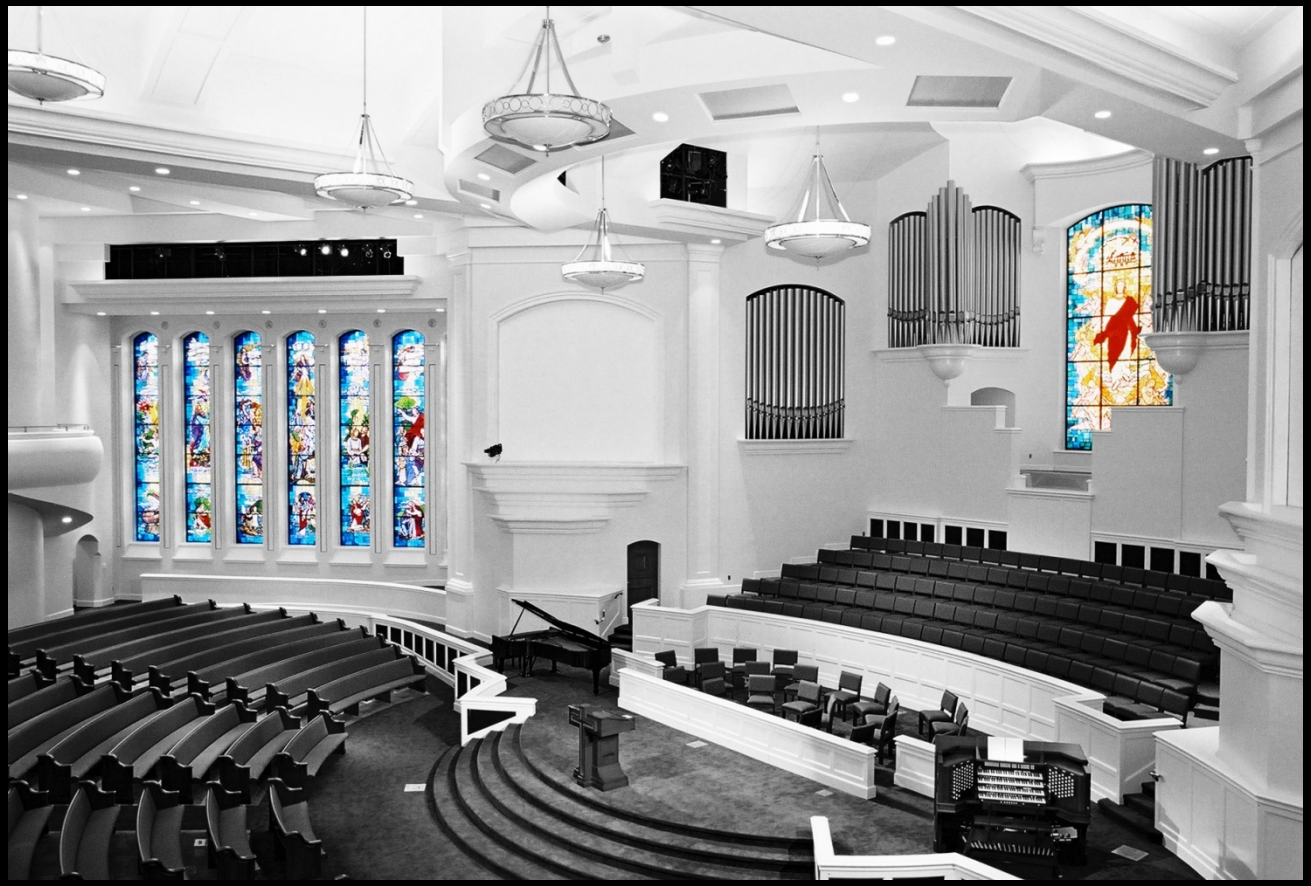
Existing Sanctuary shown in foreground right

Exterior Elevation

New Building shown far left

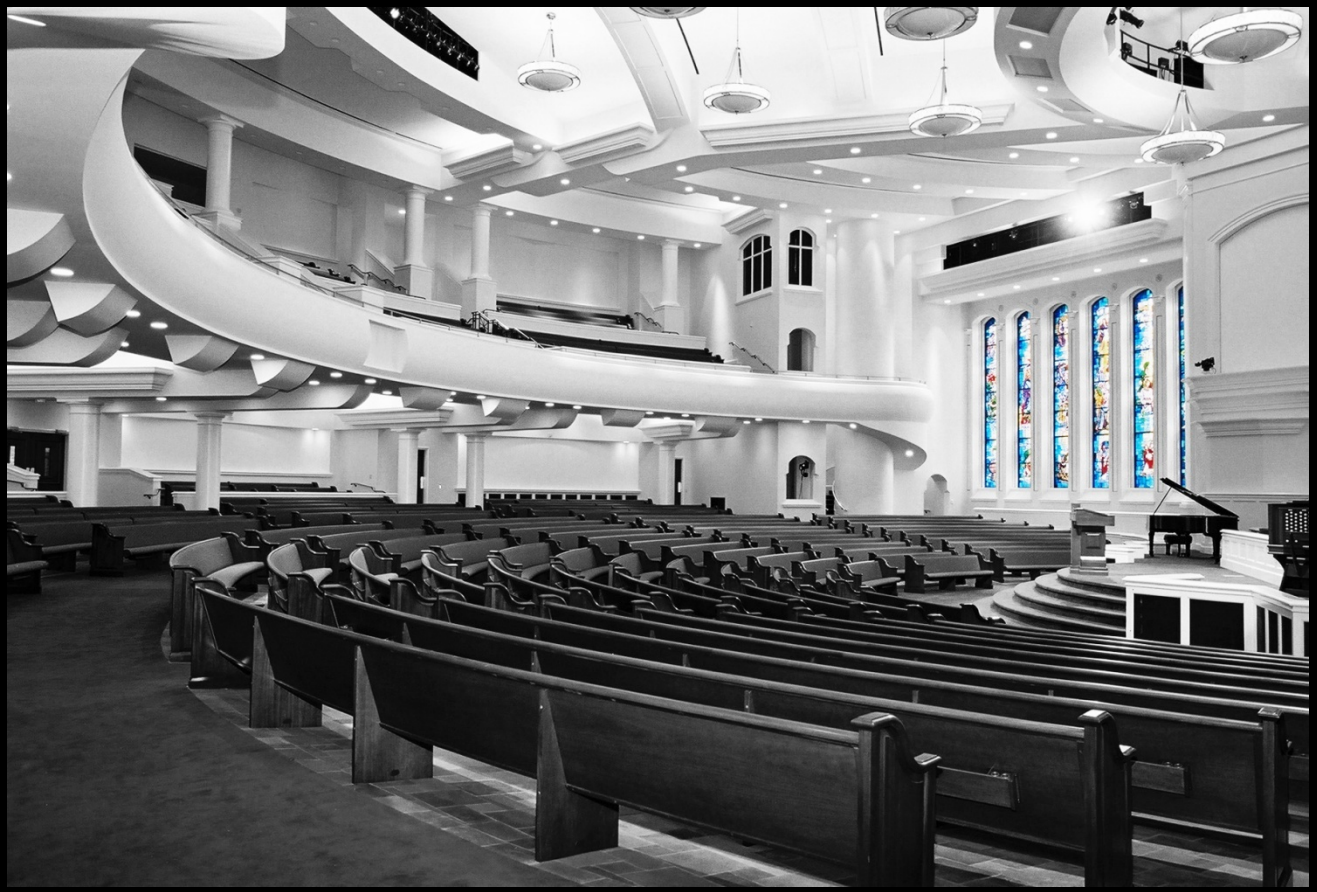
New Pedestrian Bridge shown center (beyond)

Existing Sanctuary shown far right



A New Sanctuary & Fellowship Hall Building

View towards Pulpit, Choir and Baptistry from Balcony



A New Sanctuary & Fellowship Hall Building

View across Sanctuary

A New Sanctuary & Fellowship Hall Building

View towards Organ Chambers and Baptistry

A New Sanctuary & Fellowship Hall Building

Stained Glass from Interior

A New Sanctuary & Fellowship Hall Building

Street Entrance at Second Floor Level

*

A New Sanctuary & Fellowship Hall Building for
First Baptist Church
Montgomery, Alabama

Payne & Associates Architects
Montgomery, Alabama

Project Name:
A New Sanctuary & Fellowship Hall Building for First Baptist Church

Project Location:
Montgomery, Alabama

Owner/Client:
First Baptist Church

Architect(s) of Record:
David H. Payne, AIA, Payne & Associates Architects, LLC
(A Successor firm of Borden, McKean & Payne Architects)

Project Team:
David H. Payne – Senior Designer & Partner in Charge, Mark E. Lee
Julie McGraw, Dondi Williamson, Dave Ford, John Harris,
Sharla Livingston

Consultants:
Pilgreen & White Engineering, Blackburn & Associates, Borden & Morris Consulting Engineers, Hoover & Keith, Rush Design Associates, Willet Studios, Schantz Organ, New Holland

General Contractor:
Bear Brothers, Inc.